Lift Every Voice And Sing

(If you are able to stand, please do so)

Lift every voice and sing, till earth and Heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise, high as the listening skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.

Stony the road we trod, bitter the chastening rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat, have not our weary feet,
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered,
We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered;
Out from the gloomy past, till now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years, God of our silent tears,
Thou Who hast brought us thus far on the way;
Thou Who hast by Thy might, led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee.
Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee.
Shadowed beneath Thy hand, may we forever stand,
True to our God, true to our native land.

IMAGINE

Imagine there's no heaven; it's easy if you try
No hell below us; above us only sky
Imagine all the people living for today
Ah, ah, ah, ah

Imagine there's no countries; it isn't hard to do
Nothing to kill or die for; and no religion, too
Imagine all the people living life in peace
You, you, you, you

You may say I'm a dreamer, but I'm not the only one
I hope some day you will join us, and the world will be as one

Imagine no possessions; I wonder if you can
No need for greed or hunger; a brotherhood of man
Imagine all the people sharing all the world
You, you, you, you

You may say I'm a dreamer, but I'm not the only one
I hope some day you will join us, and the world will live as one

From "A Mystic Chord" (Words by John Jacobson; Music by Audrey Snyder)

In the words of Abraham Lincoln, "We are not enemies, but friends. We must not be enemies. Though passion may have strained, it must not break our bonds of affection. The mystic chords of memory, stretching from every battlefield and patriot grave to every living heart and hearthstone all over this broad land, will yet swell the chorus of the Union, when again touched, as surely they will be, by the better angels of our nature."
