UPDATE: 1 OCTOBER 2019

MISSION STATEMENT: The Community Coalition for Social Justice is a coalition of organizations and individuals dedicated to promoting the principles of social, environmental, and economic justice and respect for all persons. We oppose discrimination and hate-motivated violence in Morgantown and surrounding communities.

STEERING COMMITTEE MEETING AND MEMBERSHIP: Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, October 15th, at 7:00 p.m. at Panera's on Patteson Drive. We have reserved the back meeting room.

Please send your web site suggestions to Mike Attfield at attfield@comcast.net. Please contact any of the steering committee members to volunteer to help and to share your suggestions for our work or e-mail us at ccsjwv@hotmail.com. Please send items to share with our membership to Barb Howe at barbara.howe@mail.wvu.edu.

PLEASE ALSO REMEMBER TO SEND YOUR DUES - $10 for individuals and $25 for organizations – to CCSJ, PO Box 160, Morgantown, WV 26507-0160. You can join or donate by credit card via PayPal on our web site.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. DAY 2020: Our Fourteenth Annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Day Celebration will be on January 20, 2020, and we are pleased to report that the City of Morgantown has again committed funding to support this event.

This year's program will feature Ilene Evans portraying Harriet Tubman (1820-1913). "Tubman was born into slavery in Maryland but escaped through the Underground Railroad in 1849. She became the most famous leader of that network, aiding slaves in their escape to free states and Canada. When the Civil War erupted her underground experiences and knowledge of covert operations made her an invaluable resource to Federal officers. She served as a spy, nurse, scout, and guide for Union troops and was present at the ill-fated assault of Fort Wagner by the 54th Massachusetts in South Carolina."

This presentation is a History Alive! program of the West Virginia Humanities Council.

CCSJ AT "STILL THEY RESISTED" EVENT: Mike Attfield spoke about CCSJ at the "Still They Resisted" program at First Presbyterian Church on September 15th, and he and Judy Cohen spoke with those attending the event during the reception after the program.

NEW MEMBER ORGANIZATION: We welcome the Morgantown Church of the Brethren-Mennonite as a new organizational member of CCSJ. The church is located at 464 Virginia Avenue.

ANNUAL MEETING REVIEW: About 30 people attended our picnic at the Scotts Run Museum on September 8th. We were especially pleased to welcome members of the Greater Morgantown Interfaith Association and League of Women Voters, Morgantown City Council member Barry Wendell, Morgantown Deputy Mayor Rachel Fetty, Morgantown Mayor Bill Kawecki, and House of Delegates member Danielle Walker.

FIND US ON FACEBOOK! Just look for “Community Coalition for Social Justice” under “Groups” and become our friend. Thanks to Mike Sharley for being our group “leader.”

October 24: United Nations Day – Commemorates the founding of the United Nations in 1945.

October 31: World Cities Day – “The human future is largely an urban future. We must get right the reduction of greenhouse emissions, strengthening resilience, ensuring basic services such as water and sanitation, and designing safe public streets and spaces for all to share.” (UN Sec.Gen.)

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS: The League of Women Voters is working with a state and a local group to begin planning for the 100th anniversary of the 19th amendment, which gave all women in the country the right to vote in 2020. If you are interested in participating in the planning, please contact Vicki Conner at vicki_conner@msn.com.

The League of Women Voters of Morgantown-Monongalia, League of Women Voters of West Virginia, and Mountaineers for Progress will be marching in the WVU Homecoming Parade on Friday, October 4th. Line-up at 5:30 p.m. for the parade at 6:30 p.m. “Join WV Women Vote to march in the WVU homecoming parade. We are marching in honor of women’s right to vote, passed in 1920. We’re marching to honor our long-ago sisters and our future sisters. No costume needed, call 304-292-2640 or message Vicki Conner for details.”

The League’s Fall Membership Meeting will be Thursday, October 17th at 7:00 p.m. Dr. Katharine Antolini, chair of History and International Studies at West Virginia Wesleyan, will be the speaker. She is well known for her research about women’s suffrage.

GREATER MORGANTOWN INTERFAITH ASSOCIATION (GMIA) EVENT IS OCTOBER 20TH: The annual GMIA October event will be Sunday, October 20th, at First Presbyterian Church, 456 Spruce Street, Morgantown, at 4:00 p.m. The program is entitled “Everyone is Sacred: How Religion Calls Us To Embrace Our Shared Humanity.” There will be a panel discussion followed by dinner and a reception.

The Making of Bad Indians: From Fragments to Story

presented by
Dr. Deborah Miranda

Elizabeth Cook Lynn (Crow Creek Lakota scholar and author) says that a nation which does not tell its own story cannot be said to be a nation at all. But how do you claim your story when all you have are the fragments left after the triple genocides of missionization, Gold Rush, and land grab?

Join us to hear Deborah Miranda discuss the methodology and research behind constructing a multi-genre mosaic for her tribe, The Esselen Nation, out of the shards of Californian Indian history.

📅 October 3
🕒 6:30 - 8 PM
📍 Oglebay Hall,

West Virginia NOW ANNUAL MEETING

ACLU OF WEST VIRGINIA IS HIRING IMMIGRANTS' RIGHTS COORDINATOR: "The American Civil Liberties Union of West Virginia, the state's leading civil liberties and civil rights organization, seeks a full-time Immigrants' Rights Campaign Coordinator to build upon our past work and implement an effective campaign to help educate, organize and advocate in support of immigrant communities in the Mountain State.

"The ACLU of West Virginia seeks a dynamic, innovative, and passionate individual to serve as its full-time Immigrants' Rights Campaign Coordinator. This is a newly created, grant-funded position with responsibility for creating and implementing a plan to help educate, organize and advocate in support of immigrants' rights in West Virginia. The Immigrants' Rights Campaign Coordinator will play a lead role in building a coalition of impacted community members, activists, faith leaders, business leaders and service providers to create space and help immigrants in the state come out from the shadows.

"The ACLU of West Virginia's main office is in Charleston. However, the Immigrants' Rights Campaign Coordinator will be working statewide. The job will require significant in-state travel and likely occasional out-of-state travel. The Immigrants' Rights Campaign Coordinator will report directly to the ACLU of West Virginia's Executive Director and will work in close collaboration with the ACLU of West Virginia's Community Outreach Director, as well as policy, communications, and legal staff.

"This is an ideal opportunity for a talented organizer and communicator to have a significant impact on civil liberties and civil rights in the Mountain State. The professional who holds this position will have the opportunity to mobilize activists and help grow a recognized leader of the resistance to the attacks on our civil liberties.

"This position is primarily grant-funded, with a minimum commitment for two years of funding."

of West Virginia, and the Sid Bell Memorial Award for service to the ACLU-WV will honor Tony Majestro of Powell & Majestro P.L.L.C. You can also browse our silent auction and enjoy a unique musical group.

“As we approach our 100th year, the ACLU continues to be the nation's defender of liberty, demanding that the promise of the Bill of Rights be extended to everyone. We hope you can join us for this thought-provoking and entertaining evening.

“Please consider supporting the ACLU-WV as a sponsor of our event, or by placing an ad in our event program. You can browse sponsorship options (nonprofit options available) and purchase online or by mailing payment to and purchase by mailing a check and this form to the ACLU-WV office OR purchase online here.

“Ads may also be purchased by mailing a check and this form to the ACLU-WV office OR purchased online here. Ads must be submitted by October 25th to be included in the event program.”

RELIGIOUS HOLY DAYS IN OCTOBER 2019 FROM PETER CLARK

Observing LGBT History Month

For Native Americans, October marks the season of the Cherokee Green Corn Ceremony and the season of Xlaaw, the season to put up food for the coming winter.

Wednesday, October 2

· Jashan-e Mehregan – Zoroastrianism

A celebratory festival of friendship, righteousness and justice.

Friday, October 4

· Feast Day of Saint Francis of Assisi – Christianity

A celebration of the patron saint of animals and ecology and the founder of the Franciscan Roman Catholic religious order, known for its ethic of simplicity and service. Many Christians mark this festival by bringing their animal companions to churches for a blessing.

Saturday, October 5

· Bodhidharma Memorial – Buddhism

This day celebrates the monk (5th – 6th centuries C.E.) who emigrated from India and is credited with transmitting Ch’an [Zen] Buddhism to China.

· Worldwide General Conference begins – Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints^[L]_[SEP]

This is the largest worship service for Latter-day Saints (also known as Mormons) and lasts for two days. Conference proceedings are broadcast live over the Internet and through other electronic media.

Sunday, October 6

· World Communion Sunday – Christianity

Tuesday, October 8

· Yom Kippur [Day of Atonement] – Judaism

The holiest day of the Jewish year. To reestablish their relationship with God, Jews ask for forgiveness and forgive others [Kol Nidre], and then they can confess their sins and ask for divine forgiveness. Prayer and fasting begin at sundown on this day and continue through the following day.

· Dashara, Vijaya Dashami, or Dussehra – Hinduism

Celebrates the triumph of Durga, the Divine Mother who manifests fierce compassion, over the forces of evil, as well as commemorating Rama's victory over the demon Ravana.

Saturday, October 12

· Ghambar Ayathrem – Zoroastrianism [through Wednesday, October 16]

This festival celebrates the creation of plants, the sowing of winter crops, and herds' return from pasture.

Sunday, October 13

· Sukkot [Festival of Tabernacles] begins – Judaism

Also known as the Festival of Booths and the Harvest Festival, Jews celebrate this time as a pilgrimage feast and time of thanksgiving. The booths or huts remind Jews of the tents used by the Israelites during their years wandering in the wilderness, as well as the dwellings used by Jewish farmers at harvest time.

· Nichiren Shonin Memorial – Buddhism

This day celebrates the monk (1222 – 1282 C.E.) who encouraged his followers to devote themselves to the Lotus Sūtra as the exclusive means to enlightenment.

Monday, October 14

· Pavarana – Buddhism

This day is the end of the three-month Vassa or rains retreat observed by Theravadin Buddhist monks.

Wednesday, October 16

· 'Ilm – Bahá'í

The beginning of the twelfth month of the Bahá'í year, meaning "knowledge."

Thursday, October 17

· Birth of Gurū Ram Das – Sikhism

This date in the Nanakshahi tradition celebrates the birth of the 4th Sikh gurū (1534 – 1581 C.E.), who is remembered for organizing the structure of Sikh society and for composing a four-stanza hymn that is the basis of many Sikh wedding ceremonies.

· Karwa Chauth – Hinduism

A day of fasting for married women, in which they dress like new brides and offer prayers for the long lives and safety of their husbands. Husbands offer sweets to their spouses at the end of the fast, once the moon is sighted.

Sunday, October 20

· Installation of the Gurū Granth Sahib – Sikhism

This date in the Nanakshahi tradition celebrates the transmission of the gurūship to the Holy Scriptures (the Gurū Granth Sahib Ji) by the tenth gurū, Gobind Singh Ji.

· Shemini Atzeret [Eighth Day of Assembly] – Judaism

This eighth day of Sukkot [Festival of Tabernacles] features prayers for rain and a good harvest in the coming year. It begins at sundown.

Monday, October 21

· Simchat Torah – Judaism

This festival, also known as “Rejoicing with the Law,” marks the end of Sukkot and the completion of the Torah reading cycle with the beginning of reading the first book again. Jews celebrate this day by singing, dancing, and marching around the synagogue or temple with Torah scrolls. This festival begins at sundown.

Thursday, October 24

· United Nations Day

· Anniversary of the Martyrdom of Gurū Tegh Bahadur Ji – Sikhism

This day commemorates the martyrdom of the ninth of the Ten Sikh Gurūs (1621-1675 C.E.). He is remembered for defending the Sikh faith, as well as the rights of Hindus and the cause of religious liberty.

Sunday, October 27

· Diwali (Deepavali) – Hinduism, Jainism, and Sikhism

The festival of lights and Hinduism’s most popular festival. It is dedicated to the Goddess Kali in Bengal and to Lakshmi, the goddess of wealth, in the rest of India. Diwali is also associated with stories of the destruction of evil by the god Vishnu in one of his many forms, as well as with the coronation of Sri Rama. Sweets and gifts are exchanged, and it is a time for cleaning and preparing for the future. This festival is also celebrated by Sikhs and Jains, with this day bearing additional names and significance as shown immediately below.

· Bandi Chhor Divas – Sikhism

Called “the day of the prisoner’s release,” this festival marks the return of the sixth gurū, Sri Hargobind Ji, and 52 other princes with him to the holy city of Amritsar after being released from detention in 1619 C.E.

· Mahavira Nirvana – Jainism

On this day Jains celebrate that the soul of Lord Mahavir (6th century B.C.E.), the 24th Tirthankara, attained nirvana and release from the cycle of rebirth [moksha].

Monday, October 28

· Atmasiddhi Rachna Divas (Creation Day) – Jainism

On this day Jains celebrate that, in 1896, the poet Shrimad Rajchandra-ji (who was a spiritual guide for Mohandas Gandhi) wrote the legendary treatise Shri Atmasiddhi Shastra, which explains the quintessence of Jainism.

Tuesday, October 29

· Birth of the Báb — Bahá’í

Anniversary of the birth of the Báb, one of the twin Prophet founders of the Bahá’í faith, in 1819 C.E. His nineteen disciples, known as Letters of the Living, taught his religion throughout 19th century Persia. His shrine is located in Haifa, Israel. Bahá’ís suspend work on this day.

Wednesday, October 30

· Birth of the Bahá’u’lláh — Bahá’í

Anniversary of the birth of the Bahá’u’lláh (“Glory of God”), the founder of the Bahá’í faith, in Tehran, Persia [modern-day Iran], in 1817 C.E. Devout followers suspend work on this day; some begin their observance of the day on the previous day’s sundown.

Thursday, October 31 Halloween

· Reformation Day – Christianity [Protestant churches]

This day commemorates October 31, 1517 C.E., when Martin Luther nailed his Ninety-Five Theses to the door of the church in Wittenberg, Germany, eventually leading to the Protestant Reformation in Europe. Most Protestant Christian churches will mark this on Sunday, October 27th.

· Samhain – Wicca

Celebration of the Celtic New Year. The dying God returns to the womb of the Goddess in preparation for rebirth at Yule. The souls of ancestors and those who have died during the turning of the past year’s wheel are remembered. Vegan Wiccans harvest nuts, the kernels of which symbolize wisdom.
